Sugarbush

Before heading out to collect sap, the students listened intently as Jim Northrup told a story about his family sugarbush.

Spring

Prom

Prom 2012 was a smashing hit. The theme was "rave" and the colors were anything neon! Mr. Shawn provided the music for us.

Big Sandy picnic

The end of the year trip to Big Sandy Memorial was a lot of fun. The Students enjoyed a lunch made for them by Dale and Jerry. They played on the playground and went hiking after they put out their tobacco.

2012

We were all very proud of our graduating class of 2012. They were an outstanding group of students. We will always remember them with fondness.

Sugar bush

This year we went out to the Northrup's sugarbush and helped with the gathering of the sap.

Kyle White is ready to get some sap! Cole, Kaitlyn and Justis are filling up after working hard. Pealms, Josh and Morning Dove gathered several bucketfuls. Brian is heading back to warm up. Josh and Barb found a cat!

Everyone searched the woods to find all of the gallons that were filling with sap.

Kaitlyn, Josh and MorningDove were happy with all of the sap they were able to help collect.

A big thanks to Jim Northrup III for including us at his sugarbush!

Brenden Bill Bird

Memory of Brenden: Last year, I watched Brenden bead several pieces on a loom. Watching him made me want to learn, so I asked him to help me. Brenden was a very good teacher. He was very knowledgeable and patient with me as I made many mistakes. Thank you, Brenden! Also, you are the best Blokus player I have ever known! I will miss you...

Cole Hilton

Cole,

There are countless reasons throughout my sons life that have touched my heart. However, none compare to the day he was born. I feel that God has truly blessed me in many ways. From the very first day he got on the bus, ready to go to school, carrying his little backpack, he was so proud of himself! He didn't know what a worried mother I was, that somebody might hurt my baby. And now, he towers over me, getting ready to graduate. I am so proud that we have gotten to see many of your academic and athletic accomplishments. From basketball to football, to R.O.Y. for track and field. I want you to know your aunts, uncles and cousins are very proud of you. Also, Grandma Betty. And Especially your dad, who I know is smiling down on you. We look so forward to being part of your future accomplishments.

Love you, son,
Mom and Paul

Samantha LaDeaux

Samantha overcame and healed from a rough early start in life to develop into a beautiful young woman. She was a gift and a blessing to everyone. I pray the choices she makes will continue to lead her high on the Red Road of life.

Mom

they shine
for you and all the things that you do.

Jodelle LaClaire

I thank the Creator everyday for bringing you into my life, without you I would not be the person I am today. From the first time I held you in my arms, to watching you grow into a strong, beautiful young woman, you have brought me so much joy and happiness. Reach for the stars, spread your wings and take the world by storm. Love,
Mom and Dad

Kaitlyn Miller

"Baby girl", Congratulations!! I am so very proud of you! May the rest of your journey through life be as wonderful and as beautiful as you. Always remember that knowledge is strength and when combined with your compassion for others, along with your respect and love for life, there is absolutely nothing that you cannot achieve or accomplish including your hearts deepest desires... I love you,

John Stolberg

Johnathan:

As a child you were full energy, excitement, amazement, all those qualities with amplification.

I told everyone when you were born, "Thank god I finally have someone to talk to." Your language skills were your strength and your world was mine as I met each challenge to secure success in your development into a young man. I was once told by a professional to not worry about you, that I gave you enough guidance and proper direction to follow you the rest of your days. A mother never really stops worrying through each stage of life. My Johnathan has now turned into John, strong as an ox with character to match. We've gone from my instruction to your instruction as I learned to develop technological skills and the knowledge my son has become a man. Now you are graduating high school and meeting new challenges that life will throw your way. I've always said that you can be anything you want to be in life, but the most important is to be the best person you can be. Happiness is not something you find it's something you make out of two ingredients, Attitude and Karma. The happiest day in my life was the day your were born. I had waited an eternity for you, now, as you make your own life, I hope the guidance and proper direction I gave you carries you through all the good and bad. No matter what I am always your mother, I am always here, this is always your home. One more milestone completed!

Taylor Drift

may the tide that is entering even now the lip of our understanding carry you out beyond the face of fear may you kiss the wind then turn from it certain that it will love your back may you open your eyes to water water waving forever and may you in your innocence sail through this to that -
-Lucille Clifton
From Katie

Taylor, my nub, my heart is filled with pride and love for you. I feel like your high school years went by so fast. It is such a bitter sweet feeling to have you graduate. You are a fabulous young woman, it was an honor to get to get to know you and I will carry all of the memories we have made together forever. Just thinking of you makes me smile! Love Always, Jill

Sedona,
You are such a kind and caring person. You have so much determination when you want something, so put it to good use! I am very proud of you! Congratulations and good luck!

Memory Lane

I will remember you, will you remember me?
Don't let your life pass you by,
Weep not for the memories

I'm so tired but I can't sleep
Standin' on the edge of something much too deep
It's funny how we feel so much but we cannot say a word
We are screaming inside, but we can't be heard

I will remember you, will you remember me?
Don't let your life pass you by
Weep not for the memories
