ACTIVITIES

Homecoming

Homecoming King and Queen Stan and Carolyn

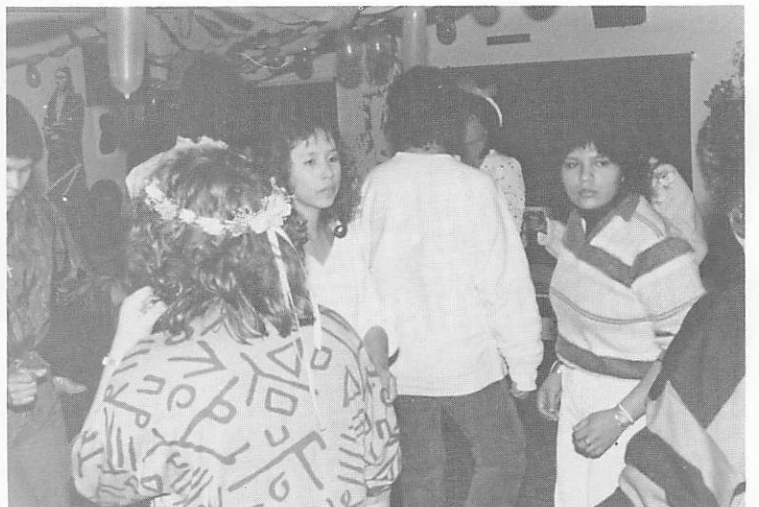

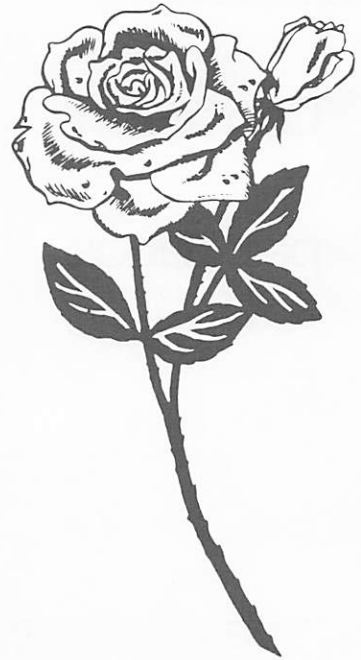

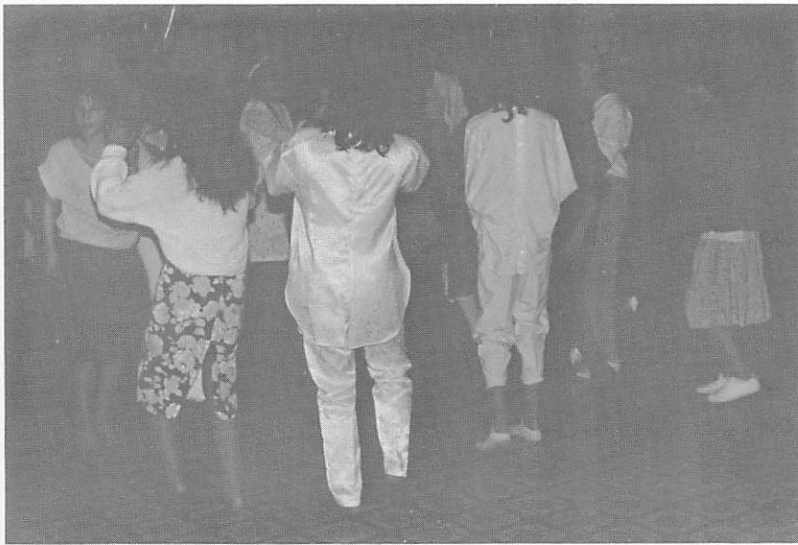

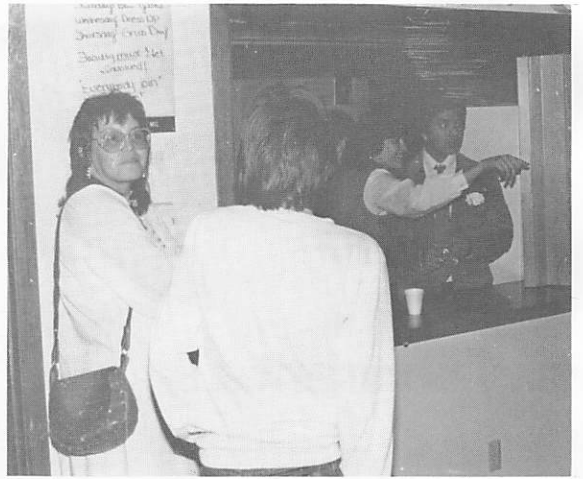

87

Stan Bird and Carolyn Wakemup are the first students to reign as Homecoming King and Queen at Fond Du Lac .

The day started with a pepfest lead by some of the students.

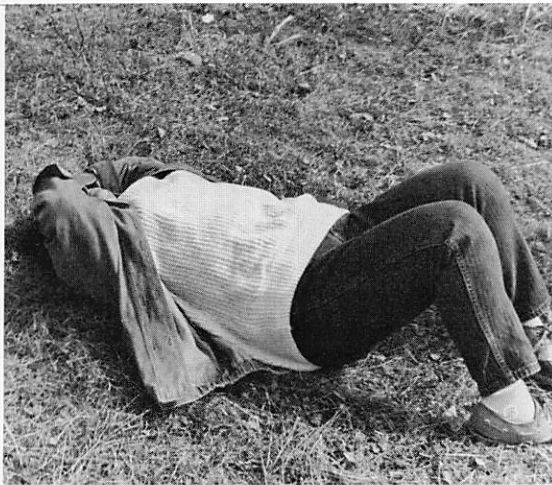

After the pepfest the King and Queen were crowned.

A football game and dance ended the evening with success.

Environmental Learning
Center
Experience

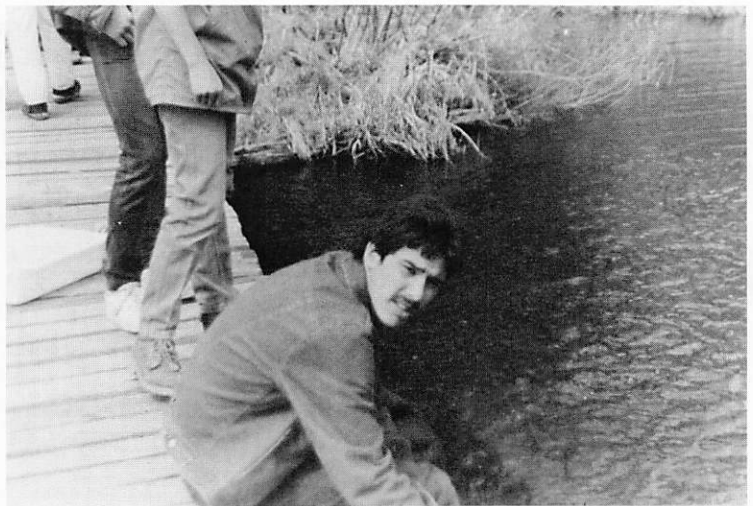

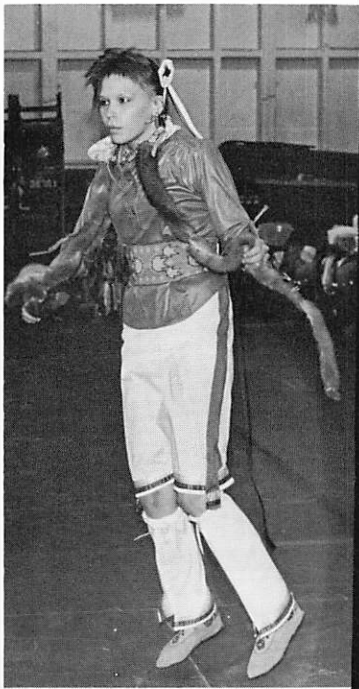

The Environmental Learning Center, located at Isabella, Mn., is an interesting place for students to learn about nature.

This year some of the Ojibway school students attended the center.

There were many different classes for everyone to attend and enjoy. These included: adventure ropes, rock climbing, archery, forest management, wildlife management, and other outdoor classes.

Princess and Brave contest

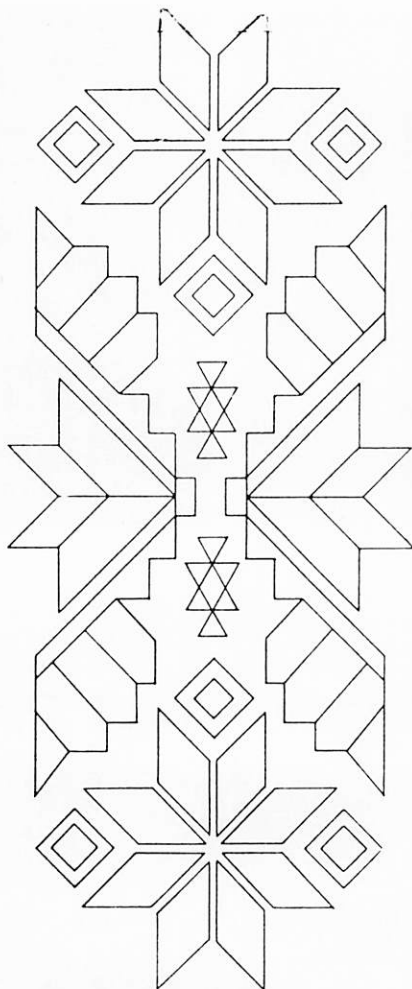

The Ojibway School annual Spring Pow-wow is something the students always look forward to. One of the reasons is the Princess and Brave contest.

These students ran for Princess: Bev Bellanger, Renee VanNett, Tara Kangas, and Nicole Ammesmaki.

These students ran for Brave: Jason Kingbird, Don May, Stan Bird, Calvin Dow, and Bob Martin.

Bev Bellanger was selected as the Princess and Nicole Ammesmaki was the first runner-up.

Jason Kingbird was selected as the Brave with Don May as first runner up.
